Sacred and Secular

with Caius Lee

Come along to work on two sacred pieces from the Spanish renaissance by Tomás de Victoria and Francisco Guerrero, and one unique Italian secular piece by Orazio Vecchi. Experience the wonder and gloriousness of the Spanish renaissance in two wonderful Marian motets, ‘Ave Maria’ and ‘Regina coeli’ by two of renaissance Spain’s greats, as well as Vecchi’s wonderful secular music. This workshop, Pitch A=440, will offer opportunities to singers , players of renaissance instruments eg: viols, recorders, cornetts and sackbuts, dulcians and lute players (reading from a score not tablature).

Not from a musical family, Caius' journey started at Bradford Cathedral, aged 11, becoming Organ Scholar, aged 15. He joined Leeds Cathedral as Organ Scholar aged 17 and was appointed Assistant Organist a year later. He read Music at St Catharine's College, Cambridge, where he was the Neville Burston Organ Scholar. He is a choral tutor on the Historically Informed Summer School and has led sessions exploring the repertoire of 'Tudor Queens', 'The Medici' and 'The Borgias'. Caius has taught on the Oxford and Cambridge Singing School and is the Director of the Florence International Singing Programme. Returning to the Diocese of Leeds in September 2021, he is a Choral Director helping to deliver the internationally acclaimed Schools' Singing Programme.

Map & directions: St Hilda's Church Hall, Thornleigh Road, West Jesmond, Newcastle upon Tyne NE2 3ET. It is a few minutes walk from West Jesmond metro station. Metro trains run every 5-6 minutes from Central Station. St Hilda's is close to Jesmond centre, with cafés and Tesco / Sainsbury very close by. Cars can be parked in the British Legion car park next door to the church for a small donation. Driving from the North south down the Great North Road, cross the Blue House roundabout (where it crosses Grandstand Road, the A189) and turn left at the lights onto Forsyth Road.  Follow that road over the metro line and turn left into Thornleigh Road. The British Legion car park is straight ahead and St Hilda's is on your left. Driving from the South, take the central motorway A167 over the Tyne Bridge, you can take the Great North Road north to Gosforth, do a U turn round the Blue House roundabout (where the Gt North Road crosses the A189) coming back towards the south, turn left into Forsyth Rd.

COVID precautions: to help to protect everyone, we ask that you:

- read and abide by our Covid policy. This can be found on our website; in the most recent NEEMF newsletter or can be sent to you on request
- whether vaccinated or not, take a lateral flow test the day before the workshop
- Please do not attend if you feel at all unwell

Please note: The NEEMF half-price pensioner concession is only for pensioners whose SOLE source of income is the state pension. Pensioners who live on a combination of occupational and state pensions pay the full workshop rate.
