Seasonal fun for voices & Instruments

led by Tricia Moores

Clements Hall, York (directions overleaf)

In the Yuletide run up, come and join us in York* for a day of seasonal fun led by Tricia Moores. Tricia is a Huddersfield-based instrumental teacher, conductor, composer and arranger and will present both secular and sacred music in a Christmas-themed workshop, possibly also involving mince pies. Tricia has a love of both early and contemporary music and is fond of referring to herself in the third person.

This workshop is open to all singers and instruments

If you're an instrumentalist, please email Tricia (illwind@gmx.co.uk) to tell her your instrument(s), preferred clef and range. Sheet music and vocal guide tracks (MP3) will be emailed in advance, although paper copies of all parts will also be available on the day.
